Exhibitor Information

Join us as an exhibitor at the inaugural Connecting Minds and Inspiring Wellness conference, hosted by the Mind Over Matters team, in partnership with the Saskatoon Industry Education Council. This one-day event is dedicated to addressing the urgent need for mental health education and support within our community.

The conference will feature three distinguished keynote speakers:

- Dr. Michael Yellow Bird, an expert in brain development and Indigenous wellness practices
- Dr. Lori Desautels, a leader in neuroeducation and trauma-informed approaches
- Dr. Shimi Kang, a Harvard-trained psychiatrist specializing in resilience and mental health

These experts will share evidence-based strategies to empower educators, health professionals, and caregivers, while fostering collaboration across sectors. Attendees will leave with practical tools for promoting mental well-being, resilience, and healing, with a strong focus on empowering youth and their communities.

As an exhibitor, you'll have the unique opportunity to connect with a diverse audience of professionals dedicated to mental wellness. This conference is an ideal platform for sharing resources, promoting products and services, and networking with key stakeholders in education, healthcare, and community support.

Don't miss this chance to be part of a transformative movement focused on inspiring wellness and building a resilient future. Showcase your brand and contribute to meaningful change within classrooms, workplaces, and beyond!
